1 Thessalonians 5: 17

Pray continually!

PRAY CONTINUALLY!

Prayer is a delicate divine tool that draws our Father near

A link connecting directly to God with assurance He will hear

So let your heart forever be a humble house of prayer

Placing your hope in God the Father and all your burdens share.

In thousands of ways and times the answers from God arrive

Through the touch of His tender mercy our spirit He does revive

So bend the knee and bow the head in front of God's own throne

In one sweet hour of prayer with Him; moldable and all alone.

Every godly prayer is answered before the last refrain

For no petition His children make will ever be in vain

Pray not for the desires of your own heart, but that of God's own will

Having faith that he will answer, waiting patiently and still.

Praise Him for deliverance that is already on its way

Lift up your heart and watch with delight each and every day

For God possesses unlimited love, is perfect, and right on time

Offering unspeakable fellowship, sweeter than words, and amazing grace sublime.
